LONDON (WITH TRAVEL)

MUDANO

WASTE LESS. DO MORE.

Driven by data. Navigated by humans.

Our mission is to harness project data to help people make the best decisions.

About Mudano

Mudano is developing the autonomous project.

We capture data on projects – such as daily tasks, meeting notes, team sentiment, resource information and project progress – and use it to guide better decision-making. Using machine learning we can predict the path of a project, helping teams to foresee issues, improve productivity and deliver efficiently.

We call this Delivery Science™
